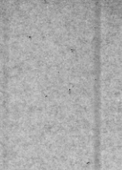
VOLUME CVI.--NO. 266. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 9, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Let go or die. That's the alternative of the shipwrecked man with the money bags. A great many people have a like alternative before them. Business men come to a point where the doctor tells them that they must "let go or die." Probably he advised a sea voyage or mountain air. There's an obstinate cough that won't be shaken off. The lungs are weak and perhaps bleeding. There is emaciation and other symptoms of disease, which if unskilfully or improperly treated terminate in consumption.

Thousands of men and women in a like condition have found complete healing by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"It gives me pleasure to send you this testimonial so that some other poor sufferer may be saved, as I was, by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Geo. A. Thompson, of Sheldon Ave., Chatham, Ont., Canada. "I had a cough for years, expectorated a great deal, and was slowly failing. Was losing flesh every day. Lost in weight from 150 pounds down to 128. My flesh got soft and I had no strength. Did not say anything to any one but made up my mind that the end was not far off. One day my wife was reading in the 'Common Sense Medical Adviser' about Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and I said, that sounds more like common sense than anything else that I had heard. I at once bought a bottle of your famous remedy and before I had taken half of one bottle I felt better. Took thirteen bottles and it made a new man of me. I gained sixteen pounds and never have had a cough since. I feel splendid and give all the credit to your medicine."

Given away. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book contains 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations and several colored plates. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.



Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure bad, foul stomach and constipation and so help to cure nearly every disease of mankind. They regulate, tone up and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Cannibals

and savages may delight in seeing SUFFERING, but the highest thought of civilization is to relieve all pain. This can quickly be done with HAMLINS WIZARD OIL.

For internal and external curative action, it has no equal in the entire medical world. It relieves the inflammation which is irritating your nerves, regulates the circulation of the small blood vessels, and, by scientific means, gently but certainly restores your body to health.

You can't be sick, if you ward off the preliminary action of disease microbes, with this greatest of all medicines of modern times. Price 50c and $1.00. Fully guaranteed.

REPUBLICANS APPREHENSIVE.

While officials at Washington talked of little else yesterday but the result of the elections and speak on that subject with great freedom, none will permit himself to be quoted for anything but the most perfunctory comments.

It is commonly agreed that the elections everywhere tell a story of revolt against the "bosses" and reflect a feeling of resentment aroused by exposures of "graft," irregular methods in money-making and the general conduct of politics as a business enterprise in the interest of "organizations." Now and then is sounded a note of alarm lest the reaction go too far, and the comment is made that there is evidence of "hitting in the dark" by the resentful voter.

Outside administration circles and to some extent within the administration there appears to be a disposition among republicans to criticise the administration, especially Secretary Taft, for the defeat of the republicans in Ohio. It is said that Herrick was unfortunately put on the defensive and that Mr. Taft's open opposition to "Boss" Cox encouraged the spirit of revolt, many republicans feeling that they had the sanction of the administration to strike at bossism and the machine everywhere. While from the viewpoint of the "strictly regular" the administration is criticised, the more common comment is that every blow struck at machine politics is a victory for President Roosevelt. The claims put forth in praise of the President, without regard to which party may have been the victim in this locality or that, are quite paradoxical.

A prominent republican who made speeches in Ohio and in other States during the campaign said yesterday evening in discussing the prospects of the future:

"If the spirit which generally pervaded the elections Tuesday isas strong next year as now, Lord help the man in the White House, for he will surely be suceeded by a democrat in 1908."

"You mean that such a spirit would probably put the republicans out of power in the lower house of Congress?" he was asked.

"Yes; and under the circumstances it would foreshadow the loss of the presidency."

This declaration was especially significant, coming from one closely identified with the administration. It is suggestive of the disorganizing influence, from a party point of view, of an election taking on the character of a free-for-all scrimmage, where the voters show a disposition to hit every head suspected of holding schemes of personal profit or other aggrandizement.

The Use of Tea.

"History tells us that when coffee was first brought to the cities of western Europe the first makers of it were Turks. They roasted and ground the berries and served the liquor as it is served to this day in the East, grits and all. We still drink coffee as we drank it then, with this difference; that we mostly omit the grits and drink an infusion instead of a decoction. It was not so with tea. No Chinaman was imported with the first pound of tea to teach us how to make and drink it. The consequence has been that we have never drunk tea in the Chinese way—that is, as a simple infusion.

"At first there seems to have been great doubt as to how to deal with the new herb. It is even said that it was sometimes boiled, with salt and butter, and served up as a sort of spinach. The old phrase, 'a dish of tea,' seems to bear out this legend. Finally, it came to be settled that the most wholesome and pleasant way to treat the tea leaf was to make it into a kind of sweet soup with sugar and milk or cream. I have personal knowledge of no country in Europe but one where tea is used as in China—Portugal, which got its knowledge of tea-making from a province of China, with which, at that time, no other nation of Europe was in contact.

"It was while traveling on horseback with a guide in the wilder parts of Portugal, away from the shops and inns, where we had perforce to make experiments in the most economical use of the few onces of tea and coffee that we could afford to carry with us, that he hit upon a discovery. Having no milk, we drank our tea, as most Portugese do theirs, as a simple infusion, sweetened with sugar.

"I remembered to have read, I believe in the travels of the Abbe Huc, that when the Chinese desire to be thristy in the use of the finer and more expensive teas they grind the leaf to powder and use less the infusion, We found that tea could be ground in a coffee mill as easily as coffee; that tea made with the powder is as good as or better then when made with the whole leaf, and that the powder, as it naturally would, goes further than the tea leaf."—[London Times.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING. NOV. 9, 1905.

MR. BASCOM SLEMP has not fulfilled the expectations of his admirers. He failed to prove himself an Achilles in his fight for Judge Lewis, whom the republican party in Virginia set up for gubernatorial honors. The former chairman of the committee, Mr. Park Agnew, could certainly have done as well and, many believe, much better. The free school book issue, the elimination of the negro from politics in the Old Dominion and with the aggressive Mr. Slemp handling the ribbons, failed to appeal to the democratic voters. About an average number of Virginians voted the republican ticket. A change of leaders often fails to fulfill expectations, and Mr. Slemp's report of his stewardship is a disappointment to the administration which strangely imagined he could make a breach in the democratic bulwarks of Virginia. President Roosevelt had listened to avaricious office-seekers who suggested the introduction of new blood into the party, and Mr. Agnew was given to understand that a man of more gladiatorial instincts was needed to lead the party. He was later notified that his successor as Collector of Internal Revenue had been selected from another section of the State. Much had been expected of Messrs. Slemp, Summers & Co., but the fruits of their labors fall behind those of their predecessor. The President would have acted wisely had he let well-enough alone. There is more likelihood now of the democrats making breeches in the breastworks of the Ninth district than for the present republican leaders to change conditions in other portions of the State. Senator Martin stated the case correctly at the Opera House last Friday night. Mr. Agnew, he said, was too honest to be a prominent factor in the party. He is non-partisan and popular with democrats and republicans alike. He lacks the bombastic aggressiveness so often manifest in political leaders who would ride rough-shod over all who refuse to get in their moulds. There is nothing in the present leaders which will appeal to people. Most of them are ensconced in lucrative positions, and so long, at least, as they remain in the same they will worship the powers that be.

THE VOTE Mr. W. R. Hearst, candidate for Mayor of New York, received in that city last Tuesday, bodes no good. About 300,000 men cast their votes for a man who has been endeavoring to ride all sorts of hobbies in order to add power to his ducats. There have been pronounced cases of red republicanism in the camp of his supporters, and during the campaign their emblem was flaunted defiantly in the streets of the metropolis. He is now engaged in a legal contest for Mayor McClellan's position, and, strange to say, some of the most prominent jurists in the country have tendered their services to him. There is nothing in Mr. Hearst personally that can appeal to any one. He has inherited riches—that is all. Had he been born in the humble walks of life he would have been a cipher. He entered life with the traditional silver spoon in his mouth and now thirsts for power, and is ready to amalgamate all the disorderly and thoughtless elements in the great city of New York in order to be carried by such a wave toward his goal. He can bring about no substantial improvement on the present order of things, as his platform is akin to Mahomet's sensual paradise. It is earnestly hoped by all lovers of law and order that the chief city in the country is not to be presided over by a Mayor who has appealed to the discontented masses, embracing socialists, nihilists, red republicans and anarchists, to place him in position. Possessing as he does millions, he can, at least, have no fellowship with such political supporters, and his term of office would be one of deceit or flagrant hypocrisy. At the same time his inability to satisfy his followers would add to their discontent and in all probability bring on troubles similar to those now disgracing other countries.

JUDGE LEWIS, the republican nominee for Governor, has been more badly beaten than even the most sanguine democrats anticipated. In the Ninth district, where the republicans were considered strong, and out of which Judge Lewis was expected to come with a big majority, showed a considerable slump to the democratic side. The boast of the Slemps, who control the republican machinery, that they would carry the State was not maintained. The Slemps are said to have been chosen for the work by President Roosevelt. The President has evidently mistaken his men.

THE PROPER place to find out the true standing of a man is at his home and among his neighbors. The home of Mr. Swanson, the democratic nominee for Governor, is in Pittsylvania county. On Tuesday, in the election in Danville, the city in that county, Mr. Swanson received over 800 votes, while Judge Lewis received but 85, and in the entire county Mr. Swanson received four votes for every one cast for his opponent. Culpeper county, Judge Lewis's home, gave him but 536 votes to Mr. Swanson's 1,962.

SENATOR RAYNOR, of Maryland, now knows what it is to turn against his party. He opposed the Poe amendment to the State constitution to curry favor with the republicans and "independents." These same people turned against his son, who was a candidate on the democrat ticket for the House of Delegates, and elected his republican opponent. Chickens come home to roost.

MR. SWANSON, the brilliant young Congressman from the Fifth district, who was elected by the vote of the people Tuesday to be the next Governor of Virginia, has attained the height of his laudible ambition which he has cherished for many years. He has made an excellent Congressman and his friends predict that he will make equally as good a Governor. Let all hope so.

IF TUESDAY'S election showed anything it proved that the republican strength has come mostly from the colored vote. They lost hundreds of votes all over the State, because the negroes who had the right to vote sulked and did not go to the polls.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.

It is learned today that the Department of Justice has decided to proceed with the prosecution of the beef trust, notwithstanding the plea of immunity raised by the packers. A conference on the subject was held in the office of the Attorney General this morning at which were present District Attorney Morrison, of Chicago, and his assistant in the beef trust prosecutions, O. E. Pagin. Commissioner of Corporations Garfield of the Department of Commerce and Labor was also sent for. The only official announcement thus far made regarding the conference is that Morrison and Pagin came here to discuss certain matters connected with the beef trust prosecution. It is learned, however, that the subject under discussion bore directly upon the recent plea of the packers. It is said that, acting under the authority given him by Congress, Mr. Garfield did extend immunity to certain subordinate employees of the beef trust. This was not intended to include the packing house concerns themselves. A direct issue having been raised by the packers, it is now essential for the Department of Justice, before it presses the matter further, to determine the exact scope of the alleged immunity. If the packers can establish that general immunity was granted to them, the government's case will likely fall. In the opinion of the Attorney General, however, this is a matter for the courts to determine.

The Civil Service Commission has adopted President Roosevelt's plan for the centralization of news. An order has gone into effect at the offices of the commission, whereby hereafter only the president of the commission, Gen. Black, will have authority to give out news of the affairs of the civil service. All subordinate officials and employes of the commission have been instructed to refer newspaper correspondents seeking information to Gen. Black, the intimation being conveyed that violation of the order will mean dismissal.

President Roosevelt received the report this morning of the law commission appointed from the State, and Commerce and Labor Departments and the Department of Justice to formulate a naturalization bill for presentation to Congress. The present naturalization laws are deemed inadequate to prevent fraud. The commission visited the White House and had a long talk with the President, going over the various features of the bill very thoroughly. The President expressed himself as much pleased with the measure as prepared and assured the Commission that it would have the administration's support.

About 100 delegates attended this afternoon the annual meeting of the American Association of Farmers' Institute Workers. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson made the address of welcome. The workers will discuss such subjects as consolidated schools, co-operation with educational agencies and the Agricultural Department and Institute organization and methods.

Signor Biondi, the sculptor of the group entitled "Saturnalia" which was refused exhibition in the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art, has written a letter to Secretary of State Root appealing to him to act as a special committee of one to examine his work and pass judgment upon the justice of the dispute which arose from the exclusion of the sculpture of the Museum. Secretary Root has replied that he is still a trustee of the Museum and special counsel and that it would therefore be impossible for him to accept Signor Biondi's invitation.

Among the statistical figures worked up by the State Census Bureau it is shown that there are in South Dakota 53,150 unmarried men and 24,881 unmarried women over the age of 18 years.

H. F. Neighbors, of New York, who was Elihu Root's private secretary in New York, has been appointed confidential secretary to the Secretary of State.

It is said here that in all probabilities Senator Joe Blackburn, of Kentucky, will be defeated for re-election by Judge T. H. Paynter.

Admiral Bradford, commanding the Caribbean squadron of the North Atlantic fleet sailed with his flagship the cruiser Olympia, late yesterday afternoon from Guantanamo, Cuba, for Santo Domingo city. The cruiser Denver sailed with the Olympia, but her destination is San Pedro de Macoris, S. D., where the reported uprising against the Morales government has occurred. The gunboat Eagle has been assigned to supplementary duty with Admiral Bradford's squadron and sailed yesterday afternoon from Newport News for Monte Cristi. Col. Colton, the American receiver in charge of the collection of customs in Santo Domingo, replying to a telegram of inquiry, has cabled the Bureau of Insular Affairs that there is no revolution in Santo Domingo and that everything is quiet throughout the republic. U. S. Minister Dawson, at Santo Domingo city, cabled to the State Department this morning that the incipient revolution at Macoris, Santo Domingo, reported yesterday, is all over. He says there were signs of an uprising at Macoris, to the west of which town fifty armed men were making demonstrations against the government. The authorities made a few arrests, but so far as reported there was no bloodshed and everything is now again quiet.

The Department of Commerce and Labor announces officially that the United States has entered the list of the world's rice producing and exporting countries. Figures compiled by its bureau of statistics show that the exports of rice to Cuba alone in the past fiscal year amounted to 24,000,000 pounds, as against 7:0,000 in the preceding year. The total value of rice of domestic production shipped to other countries in the fiscal year 1905 was $5,361,641. Formerly rice was grown only in the coast counties of the Carolinas, Georgia and the Mississippi delta. It is due to the efforts of the Agriculture Department that the industry has spread to the prairie lands of Louisiana and Texas. At present the United States ranks fourth in the list of rice producing countries of the world.

Consul Liefeld, of Freiburg, Germany, sends to the Department of Commerce and Labor statistics which shows that the ratio of the insane is increasing rapidly in England and Wales. A commission for the feeble minded of England was received yesterday by President Roosevelt. The members are making a study of treatement in this country.

News of the Day.

Revolutionary sentiment is gaining ground in China.

Austria is in the throes of an immense strike, 10,000 railroad men being out and the coal supply cut off.

King Edward distributed his annual birthday quota of titles and honors, his eldest daughter, the Duchess of Fife, heading the list.

Alfred A. Buck, formerly assistant cashier of the Mapleton State Bank, Minnesota, yesterday pleaded guilty to embezzlement and was sentenced to six years in prison.

Count Witte is endervoring to win the zemstvo constitutionalist party over to his reform programme. Quiet is being re-established in the Russian empire, save in the Caucasus, where anarchy still reigns. Reports of massacre horrors continue to drift in.

In the testimony of John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, before the insurance investigating committee, upon the resumption of the insurance investigation in New York yesterday, it was brought out that industrial insurance was considerably more expensive than other forms of life insurance.

Gen. G. H. Burton, inspector general, makes a number of important recommendations in his annual report upon the conditions of the army. He criticizes severely the absenteeism of captains from their commands, and says that out of 398 companies and troops from whom information was obtained 155 captains were absent, which, General Burton says, injures the discipline of the army.

Edward Thaw, of Pittsburg, has been divorced by his wife, Frieda Marsh Thaw. It was Edward Thaw who declared, when his sister married the Earl of Yarmouth, that he had rather she had married a man than a title. Mrs. Frieda Marsh Thaw is just fitting up a beautiful apartment in Euclid Hall, New York, where she will make her home with her little son, Lawrence. "I obtained a decree against Mr. Thaw on statutory grounds a week ago," said Mrs. Thaw in New York yesterday.

Bishop Coadjutor.

A called meeting of the Episcopal council of the diocese of Southern Virginia was in executive session most of yesterday in St. Paul's Church, Lynchburg, Bishop Randolph presiding, to elect a bishop coadjutor, to assist him in his work. There were sixty clerical and seventy lay delegates present. The salary of the new officer was fixed at $3,000, with rental of residence and traveling expenses and the stipulation that he is to reside at a point not east of Lynchburg. Bishop Randolph proposed that the bishop coadjutor be assigned all that portion of the diocese lying west of and including the counties of Augusta, Rockbridge, Botetourt, Bedford, Franklin, and Henry, the supervision of the colored churches in Mecklenburg, Lunenburg, and Nottoway counties, stipulating, however, that there was to be co-operation between the two and an exchange of appointments.

Those in nomination were Rev. Braxton Bryan, of Petersburg; Rev. Beverly Dandridge Tucker, of Norfolk; Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, of New York; Rev Berryman Greene, of the Theological Seminary at Alexandria; Rev. James Watson Morris, of Leesburg; Rev. W. H. Milton, of Roanoke; Rev. John J. Lloyd, of Lynchburg; Rev. John K. Mason, of Louisville, Ky., and Rev. William Meade Dame, of Memorial Church, Baltimore.

In the morning the bishop and council consecrated St. Paul's Church, which was erected ten years ago at a cost of $80,000, but has been in debt ever since until this year, when the congregation freed it from all incumbrances.

A dispatch received at this office today says that Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd was chosen Coadjutor Bishop.

This is the third time Rev. Mr. Lloyd has been elected to the bishopric having been chosen Bishop of Kentucky and Mississippi, but each time declined the position. He was also elected to the chair of history at the Theological Seminary, which positon he also declined. He is now secretary of the Foreign Board of Missions and has been stationed in New York for several years past. He is well know in this city where he spent his early days. He is a son of the late John J. Lloyd, of Alexandria, and a brother of Mrs. George Uhler, of this city.

The Fox Hunters.

The fourth day's trial of the Grafton Middlesex hounds for the $1,000 a side in the Piedmont Valley to capture reynard's brush furnished good sport for thirty-five minutes yesterday. The hounds, however, only succeeded in running the fox to earth within a short distance of where he was gotten up.

The English hounds showed greater speed than on any previous day, and with hunting conditions almost perfect the fox was given a close run for his life.

Several of the field fell during the run, but the only serious fall that occurred was that which befell Mrs. Tom Peirce, of Boston. Her hunter, the Champion, in jumping a stone wall, overreached himself, cut his tendons, and gave Mrs. Peirce a bad cropper. She fell on a pile of stone and knocked out one of her front teeth. Her horse was so badly injured that he will never hunt again. Mrs. Peirce very gamely mounted a green horse and continued the run, which ended at Bald Hill woods, where the fox had first been gotten up. The meet today was at Zula, on the road to The Plains, where the Grafton hounds were hunted for the fourth time.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jett, aged 67 years, wife of Norman W. Jett, died at her home in Stafford county, recently, after a lingering illness.

Miss Edna Fadeley, daughter of Mr. H. J. Fadeley, of Leesburg, was married yesterday morning to Mr. Cecil Connor, of the Leesburg bar.

Union Church, in Stafford county, has been awarded $750 for damages sustained from Union troops during the civil war by the Court of Claims, Washington.

Former governor William E. Cameron will succeed the late General Fitzhugh Lee in the work of soliciting the aid of the States for the Jamestown Exposition. He will enter upon his duties in December.

Mrs. James T. Arnold died from typhoid fever yesterday at her home near Falls Church. She had been ill only three days. She is survived by a husband, a well-known business man of Washington, and four children.

In Tuesday's election many persons scratched only Lewis, unintentionally leaving the names of two candidates on the ticket and thus invalidating the ballot. But for this confusion, Swanson's majority would have been much greater than that given him.

Representatives of the University of Virginia and the Medical College of Virginia, in conference in Richmond, Tuesday night, appointed a sub-committe to draft a plan whereby the medical department of the university and the medical college can be consolidated. A further conference will be held at a near date to be arranged at the university.

The Board of Visitors of the Virginia Military Institute met in Lexingtou today to investigate the complaints of cadets with reference to food conditions. The third class, which presented a paper to General Shipp, threatening to leave the school unless a promise of improved conditions was given them, have offered to withdraw the paper, but have declined to apologize. They think this is apology enough, but Gen. Shipp does not, and the trouble is hardly over.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Leonard M. Davis, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mary M. Thomas, of Loudoun county; William H. Carpenter and Mary Hedgman, both of Falls Church; Robert L. Embrey, of Rectortown, and Lillie M. Embrey, of Delaplane; Fenton H. Harris, of the United States army, and Minnie M. Webster, of Fauquier county; R. Homer Wood, and Mildred T. Hazegrove, both of Richmond; Cecil Connor and Mary E. Fadeley, both of Leesburg; Emmet H. Turner and Annie C. Sargeant, of Gordonsville, and to Linwood Ruffiner, of Meetz, Fauquier county, and Gussie Ford, of Swetnam, Fairfax county.

Mr. Slemp's Defeat.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Journal says: Democrats in Washington are jubilant over the defeat administered to the republican ticket in Virginia. The majority was unexpectedly large to them.

They regard it as the last link in the discrediting of the Slemp leadership. Republicans take a similar view of it. They say that Slemp has not done as well as Park Agnew did four years ago. It will probably change the patronage question in Virgina.

Secretary Shaw was rather shocked when he heard how badly the Slemp leadership had lost out. When he learned the real result this morning it was with consideration chagrin. Not only had the Slemps lost, but his own speechmaking tour had not shown up as he expected it would.

Speaking of the result an Agnew-Bowden republican said that it was no surprise to him. "They have asserted that Mr. Agnew did not try to roll up a good majority, and that he cared only for the political fortunes of a coterie of friends and himself. They have had a trial now, and it shows distinctly to their disadvantage.

"It gives the administration a basis upon which to compare the leadership of Agnew and that of the Slemps. We voted the ticket and worked for it but it met with severe defeat. If there had been any measure of victory the Slemps would have claimed credit for it. Now they must take the responsibility for defeat."

Virginia Weddings.

Miss Henrietta E. Grant, daughter of Mrs. H. F. Grant, of the University of Virginia, and Dr. Burnley Lankford, of Norfolk, were married last night in the university chapel, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. K. Massie, for many years the pastor of the bride, and now proffessor at the Theological Seminary, assisted by Rev. H. B. Lee, rector of Christ Church, Charlottesville.

In the Presbyterian Church at Winchester yesterday afternoon Miss Elizabeth Faulkner Love, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William S. Love, became the bride of Dr. Samuel Peachy Latane, Rev. Dr. James R. Graham, pastor emeritus, and Rev. Dr. J. Horace Lacy, the pastor, officiating.

Mr. H. O. Ferguson and Mrs. Emily Pearson were married at Middleburg yesterday by Rev. Mr. Cooper.

Mr. J. B. Thompson, of Fauquier county, and Miss Rosa L. Otley, daughter of Mr. H. Clay Otley, of Bloomfield, were married in Bloomfield yesterday by Rev. J. L. Kibler.

Mr. Robert W. Higdon, son of Mr. James L. Higdon, and Miss Mattie E. Potter, daughter of Mr. Nelson Potter, were married at Herndon yesterday by Rev. J. E. Bailey.

Letter to F. M. McGarvey.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: You buy your horseshoes and nails; your grandfather, if he was a blacksmith, made 'em. You can't afford to hammer them out by hand, when you can buy as good, or better perhaps, ready made to your hand, for a little more than the cost of the iron.

What do you think of a painter who goes on buying his linseed oil and whitelead, and mixing, and tinting by hand, and charging his time for work that is far better done than he can do it, done by machinery, done as your horseshoes and nails are made.

Mistake isn't it?

He is wasting his chance in the world. There is no better stuff to do business with than good horseshoes and paint; and no better work than putting them on. Good horseshoes well put on: It's the putting 'em on that makes you a blacksmith; no matter who makes 'em.

Who wants to go back to old times, and make his own horseshoes?

Between us two, that painter don't know how to make good paint—he used to; but paint has run away from him.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & CO

The Elections.

Later returns from Tuesday's elections show no material changes in the results as published in yesterday's Gazette, save to make a better showing for the democratic party even than that heretofore given. In Maryland Comptroller Atkinson, democrat, was elected by 6,510 majority and the suffrage amendment was defeated by 28,650. The Legislature is democratic, as follows: Senate—democrats, 18; republicans, 8; fusion democrats, 1. House of Delegates—democrats, 53; republicans, 45; independents, 3; total membership, 101; majority, 51.

Pattison, democrat, has been elected governor of Ohio. The democrats claim a majority of 55,000, while the republicans concede 25,000. The democrats will also have a majority in both houses of the legislature, but no U. S. Senator is elected by this legislature.

The union labor party overwhelmed the democratic-republican fusion in San Francisco and elected the mayor and city ticket complete.

The republicans made a clean sweep in the sanitary district and judicial elections in Chicago. Democratic enemies of Judge Dunn gave him a setback.

With the granting of an order by Supreme Court Justice William J. Gaynor in Brooklyn last night, compelling Police Commissioner McAdoo to remove every ballot box from all over the precincts in greater New York to the bureau of elections, William R. Hearst, the defeated municipal ownership league candidate, took his first legal step in a fight to secure a recount of the votes cast on election day.

Pennsylvania which one year ago gave President Roosevelt the unprecedented plurality of a half-million, declared emphatically for the election of an honest democrat, to put an end to the blighting graft system.

Though the candidacy of Berry, State treasurer, hampered by machine-devised complications in the ballot, it is estimated that between 250,000 and 300,000 independent republicans found a way to vote for him and he was elected by about 100,000 majority.

VIRGINIA.

Further official and unofficial returns from Tuesday's election give Mr. Swanson a majority of 34,036 over Judge Lewis for Governor.

The political complexion of the Legislature will not be materially changed as a result of the election, though it looks as if the opposition strength has been reduced. The republicans will probably have seventeen members on joint ballot as against twenty in the last body. They made a gain of only one vote in the Senate giving them six instead of five in the upper branch. They had three "holdovers," Messrs. Greer, Turner and Noel, and two of the other seats they held, and which were filled on Tuesday, were retained by them, while they gained one. This was the Bristol district, formerly represented by Hon. J. Cloyd Byars.

Of the one hundred members of the last House there were fifteen republicans and one independent. The republicans have elected nine, and probably eleven, members of the lower branch. They may possibly get thirteen as a result of later returns, but even then their strength will be only nineteen, instead of twenty in the last assembly. With nine members certain they will probably get Carroll and Floyd, still unreported. Pulaski, Patrick, Franklin and Henry are in doubt. In Pulaski there is a possibility of republican victory, but in the other three chances favor the democrats.

There was a good deal of switching around in various counties not to have more materially altered general results. The democrats captured the following districts represented in the last House by republicans: Montgomery and Radford, one member from Rockingham, Stafford and King George and two members from Washington and city of Bristol. The democrats also carried Spottsylvania and Fredericksburg, which was represented in the last House by an independent. The republicans reversed conditions in Wythe, and perhaps several other counties.

The fight made by the rejuveuated, regenerated and somewhat contrite republican party turned out to be a miserable fiasco, which must be mortifying in the extreme to them.

It seems that only one congressional district was carried by the republicans, and that instead of gaining ground much territory was lost. This was particularly noticeable in the matter of the legislative fights, which in some cases turned out to be surprising victories for the democrats.

In nearly every doubtful county the democrats won, and in several instances they prevailed at the polls when their case seemed almost hopeless.

While all, of course, expected a defeat for the republicans, no one anticipated such a Waterloo as that of yesterday, and it is almost inexplicable.

Judge Lewis's candidacy assuredly has lent no strength to his party, while the returns from every section indicate that the negroes are completely alienated, or are cunningly biding their time until they can dictate their own terms.

Some of the most notable democratic victories were in the Ninth district legislative fights, as both Montgomery and Pulaski were reclaimed, while most satisfactory results were likewise achieved in Spottsylvania and Fredericksburg, in Greensville and Sussex, and in Patrick, Nelson and Henry counties.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Today's Telegraphic News

Bishop Lloyd.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 9.—The session lasted almost continuously from 9 o'clock this morning, the council of the diocese of Southern Virginia, of the Episcopal Church, today elected Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, of New York City, Bishop coadjutor for the diocese.

Mr. Hearst's Contest.

New York, Nov. 9.—The contest of W. R. Hearst for the mayorship is well under way today and interesting and important developments are forecasted. The Board of Elections, both in Manhattan and Brooklyn, had their hands full this morning receiving the ballot boxes used in Tuesday's election from the police. The ballot boxes were turned over on a midnight order of Supreme Court Justice Gaynor, who said significantly when he signed the order: "The police have nothing whatever to do with the ballot boxes, and it is most astounding that they should have possession of them. They have no right to even touch them." The order, which was asked for by Col. Alexander S. Bacon, one of counsel for Mr. Hearst, required the immediate delivery of the boxes containing the ballots and allowed until noon today for the delivery to the county clerk of the envelope containing all void and protested ballots and tally sheets. The fight by Mr. Hearst will be waged to the bitter end. He has engaged able and eminent counsel, including Colonel Alexander S. Bacon, who prosecuted John Y. McKane, and sent him to Sing Sing, for election frauds; Judge Steckler, Judge Julius S. Cohen, Charles H. Syde, and Day and Lord. If the affidavits submitted by Hearst and Jerome watchers are substantiated there will be many criminal prosecutions. The Hearst people have over 600 affidavits as to fraud and more will be taken today, when several warrants for arrest will be applied for. William Ivins, republican nominee for Mayor, has offered his services to Mr. Hearst as counsel. Clarence Shearn, counsel for Mr. Hearst, offered Mr. Ivins a retainer, which he declined to accept. Scores of telegrams were sent to Mr. Hearst, yesterday, urging that he fight the case. Wayne MacVeagh, former Attorney General of the United States, and chief legal advisor to Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia, in the reform movement in that city, telegraphed a message of support. Mr. Ivins, the republican candidate for mayor, says he thinks that Hearst was elected. He said, "Tammany had, at its command not less than a million dollars and I believe that every purchaseable vote was purchased."

Prince Louis at New York.

New York, Nov. 9.—His highness, Prince Louis of Battenburg, admiral of the British navy, with his squadron, after visiting Annapolis and Washington, arrived in New York harbor today. The warships proceeded up the North river, where Prince Louis was received by the battleship squadron of the United States navy in command of Rear Admiral Evans and the four armored cruisers under Admiral Brownson. After the customary salute had been fired, the British ships came to anchor. The berth of the fleet is that above Fifty-fourth street, and extending to the flagship of Rear Admiral Evans. The American squadron is anchored above Seventy-fourth street. The British ships appeared off the Sandy Hook lightship early this morning, and awaited daylight to enter the harbor. Passing up the bay they were constantly saluted by passing craft. The cruisers made a fine appearance with their lead-colored "war paint." The Drake has four funnels, the others have three each.

When the British warships come to anchor, Rear Admiral Evans got into his gig and was rowed to the Drake, to pay his respects and offer the hand of welcome to the Prince. At noon the British admiral went to the Brooklyn navy yard where he paid an official call upon Rear Admiral Coghlan. Returning to his flagship, the Prince stopped at Governor's Island, where he was received by General Grant and his staff. Before going to the Brooklyn navy yard, Prince Louis and his staff called at the City Hall and paid their respects to Mayor McClellan and a delegation of Aldermen. These visits will be returned this afternoon. The Prince expects to remain here about ten days.

Alfonso's Visit to Germany.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—King Alfonso, who is the guest of Kaiser William, left here this afternoon in company with his royal host, traveling in a special train for Hanover. They were accompanied by the German Crown Prince and a brilliant suite of high officials and noblemen. One stop was made during the journey to Madgdeburg, where their majesties lunched with the officers of the Sixty-sixth infantry of which Alfonso is honorary colonel. The regiment later was put through numerous military manoeuvres which were reviewed by the Kaiser and his visitor. On their arrival at Hanover this evening the party will proceed to the barracks of the Uhlan regiments at Hanover to dine with the officers. After dinner, the Kaiser and King will attend a performance of Wagner's Tannhauser at the Royal Theatre and will spend the night in the royal residence at Hanover, preparatory to hunting in the vicinity tomorrow.

Madrid, Nov. 9.—A high diplomat informed the correspondent of the Publishers' Press today that there is a probability of the betrothal of King Alfonso and Princess Mary Anthoinette, of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, a kinswoman of the German imperial family. Negotiations regarding this royal betrothal began last June and now appear to be prospering. The couple have corresponded since September, when the Kaiser sent the queen mother a photograph of the princess.

Railway Strike in Austria.

Vienna, Nov. 9.—The railway strike is extending. Several coal mines and sugar factories have been forced to close down. The government is considering the calling out of the military reserves to keep order. The railway employes are demanding a 30 per cent. raise in wages on account of the advance in the cost of living in Austria due to the agrarian fiscal policy of excluding foreign meats. The strike is further complicated by a demand for universal suffrage.

Statue of Satan.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 9.—A monument to Satan, erected by an avowed infidel to show his contempt for religion, was the sight that greeted neighbors of Herman Menz, a contracting stonemason, when they passed his home in Stenton avenue yesterday. Murmurings of indignation are freely voiced, and corrective measures are being discussed. The monument is quite an elaborate affair, about fourteen feet in height from its foundation to its crown. Satan is shown in stooping posture behind a pulpit. His infernal majesty is looking over the landscape with a fiendish stare, with his horns protruding from the side of his head. Carved in the stone directly in front is the big, ugly fork with which he is supposed to prod sinners in the fire. The structure is built on the lot line alongside the Menz home. Around the neck of the statue when it was unveiled was a ribbon of United States flags. Menz explained this by staying it is a Yankee devil.

Resignation of Trepoff.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—Official confirmation was given today to the report that General Trepoff has resigned the position of Chief of Police of St. Petersburg. Trepoff has the terrible record for cruelty in suppressing disorders among the people in Russia. He has not been permitted to use his iron methods during the present troubles, as the new government, under Count Witte, wished to propitiate the people by liberal and more kindly means. Trepoff, it is believed, chafed under the restrain placed on him, and has finally quit. There is general satisfaction with this and the resignations of other high officials. It is the opinion that this proves that the ascendancy of Witte is secured and that he will now be able to purify the government. The modern liberals are more inclined daily to support Witte. If he fulfills the hopes for universal suffrage, they will be solid for him.

The Election in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—The Ohio political struggle has now resolved itself into a fight for the minor State offices and the Senate. Democratic Chairman Garber claims that Pattison's plurality will exceed 40,000. Republican Chairman Dick concedes defeat by these figures. Garber also claims the House, Senate, and all State officials. Dick concedes the House, but says he hopes to save the Senate to the republicans, and also to elect some if not all the republican candidates for minor State offices. Garber claims 80 members of the House and 21 members of the Senate.

London's New Lord Mayor.

London, Nov. 9.—Walter Vaughn Morgan, was sworn in as Lord Mayor today. The old pageant, known as the Lord Mayor's Show, was given. The day was cold and foggy. The usual tawdry procession, led by bands, marched to the Law Courts, where a new Lord Mayor and Sheriff were sworn. Big crowds were out to witness the show, but many of the newspapers demand a cessation of this ceremony.

Daring Train Robbery.

Corry, Pa., Nov. 9.—A daring car robbery was perpetrated on the Pennsylvania Railroad between Buffalo and this city early today. When the through Buffalo car was opened here it was found that robbers had ransacked every package, selecting the choice articles. The value of the stolen goods cannot yet be ascertained, though it will be large. The robbers worked while the train was in motion.

Naval Demonstration Against Turkey

Paris Nov. 9.—France will adhere to the propositions made by Austria and Russia for a joint naval demonstration to be made against Turkey to compel the porte to agree to the scheme for international supervision of Macedonian finances. This makes the agreement effective between all the powers.

Revolution in Brazil.

London, Nov. 9.—The following dispatch was received today from the Brazilian Bank in Rio Janeiro: "Part of the garrison revolted owing, they claim, to ill treatment. All have surrendered and everything is quiet." Dispatches last night said that a revolution had broken out in Brazil.

Accident to Queen Amelia.

Lisbon, Nov. 9.—Queen Amelia had a narrow escape from injury or death today. A horse she was riding slipped, then reared and finally fell on the queen, who was badly bruised, but had no bones broken. Though in great pain, the queen pluckily mounted another horse and galloped to the palace.

Autonomy for Poland.

London, Nov. 9.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says it is officially reported that Poland will shortly be granted autonomy.

Mutiny in Kronstadt.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—Advices from Kronstadt report that several naval officers have been killed by the mutineers there and that the town is in flames.

Assailant Identified.

Atlantic, Ga., Nov. 9.—Jim Walker, a negro, this morning was positively identified by Mrs. Alice Moore, white, as the brute who assaulted her several weeks ago. A mob headed by Cliff Moore, the woman's son, intercepted the officers while they were returning to jail with the negro on Peachtree Road, a fashionable thoroughfare of this city, and attacked the officers and tried to get the negro. Moore knocked down the assailant of his mother and efforts were made to get the negro from the officers for lynching. G. W. Moore, husband of the assaulted woman, dragged his son off and asked for a fair trial. The sheriff in charge of the prisoner promised to let Moore pull the trigger of the gallows to hang the negro when convicted.

Terrible Atrocities on Missionaries.

London, Nov. 9.—Hong Kong advices received here today state that terrible atrocities were committed on the American women missionaries recently massacred at Lienchou. Dr. Machle, whose wife and daughter were among the victims, brings the horrifying details. He states that the women were stripped naked and exposed to public view in the Chinese temple. Finally, while still alive, they were thrown into the river where Chinamen speared them with tridents. Mr. Peale, who was slaughtered, was also stripped and clubbed to death in the presence of his wife. Later she met the same fate that Miss Chestnut, Mrs. Machle and her daughter had suffered.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves Belching, Heart Burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

The Killing of Richard Mills.

As was stated in the Gazette, the coroner's jury yesterday announced their inability to identify the person who shot and killed Richard Mills, colored, in the northeastern section of the city last Saturday night. A number of witnesses were examined, but nothing definite could be obtained from either of them, although the fact remained that Mills had been murdered by some one. Sarah Gaskins and Hughes King had been taken in custody by Officers Beach, Henderson, Garvey and Ferguson, it being apparent that both the man and woman knew who did the shooting. Every circumstance pointed to this conclusion. The evidence showed that Mills left Doherty's saloon with the woman and that King, who had been on terms of intimacy with Sarah Gaskins, followed them. King was said to have been with another man, and the four persons were in the house in which the shot was fired. King, or his companion, it is suspected, did the shooting. Justice Caton, with due deference to the jury which examined the case, has determined to hold the man and woman for a few days, it being probable that more light will eventually be shed upon the mystery.

Will Accept a Call.

At a meeting of the session of the Second Presbyterian Church last night Dr. F. J. Brooke, the pastor, announced that he has recently received calls from two churches in other portions of the State and had determined to accept one of them. Dr. Brooke has been pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church for over five years, during which time he has become acquainted with a large percentage of the people of this city, among whom he is justly esteemed. Previous to taking charge of the church in this city he was an evangelist and labored assiduously in localities where the Gospel is seldom preached. During the time he has been in Alexandria he has used all his energy in the interests of the church over which he has been placed, while his zeal in movements having for their object the spread of Christianity and the unification of church work, has ever been earnest. Dr. Brooke is the present chaplain of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans.

Sudden Death.

George H. Blakeley, an electrical engineer, who lived at Willoughby, Ohio, died suddenly in his room at the Hotel Appich, in this city, about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Blakeley arrived in Alexandria Tuesday to visit his son, Frank H. Blakeley, who is employed in this city. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the young man went to his father's room to talk with him, and discovered that he was breathing only at long intervals. He summoned Dr. Rittenour, but when the physician arrived a few minutes later he found that the man was dead. His death was caused by heart disease. Mr. Blakeley was forty-eight years of age. He is survived by his wife, son and a daughter. The remains were turned over to Undertaker Wheatley, and they will be forwarded to Ohio for interment.

Death of Mr. Compton.

Mr. Dallas Compton, who had recently been ill with typhoid fever at the Alexandria Hospital, died at that institution last night. The deceased was a native of Culpeper, but had recently resided in this city, having been associated with the Goodloe Company in the dry goods business. His remains will be forwarded by Demaine & Son to Culpeper where they will be interred. Although the deceased had been a resident of this city but a short time, he had made many friends add acquaintances, all of whom will regret to learn of his death.

Young Sturgeon.

There have been more "spikes," young sturgeon, caught in the Potomac during the past week or ten days than for many years and if the fish were allowed to grow and attain full size the prospects are that the sturgeon fisheries on the Potomac would once more regain their old time importance. The fishermen do not seem to realize that they are harming themselves by taking the young sturgeon and sending them to market, where they bring a few cents. If they were allowed to mature they would bring big prices.

Fires.

There were two fires yesterday afternoon, neither of which resulted in serious damage. The first occurred in a brick house on Patrick street, between Oronoco and Pendleton. The flames were soon extinguished. The second was on Fairfax street, between Wilkes and Gibbon, where a shed took fire from flying sparks. The fire was subdued by people in the neighborhood before it gained dangerous headway.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

Sarah Haskins and Hughes King, arrested on suspicion of murdering Richard Mills, were held for a further examination.

Henry Washington, colored, arrested by Officer Young charged with assaulting Ollie Lear, was dismissed.

Knights of Columbus.

The Columbian Knights provisioned themselves last night from the ample stores of the Elkton. Dr. E. A. Gorman presided at the table and Knights Callan, Donnelly, Roche, Whitcomb, Quinn, Wheatley, Carne and others responded to calls.

Good Templars.

A lodge of Good Templars will be instituted in Pythian Hall tomorrow night with a large charter membership. A delegation will be on hand from Washington and Falls Church.

John W. Hickey, son of John W. and Hanorah Hickey, died in Washington yesterday.

Circuit Court for the City.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

J. L. Loose vs. Southern Railway Company, a suit for $20 000 for alleged damages to property; demurrer of defendant company to counts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6 sustained and No. 4 withdrawn; the case stands dismissed and an appeal will be taken to the Court of Appeals.

I. M. Wood vs. Southern Railway Company, a suit for $5,000 for personal injuries. This case was set for trial today, but it was continued and left open for further proceedings during this term. A settlement may be reached out of court.

Several cases are set for tomorrow.

Personal.

Mr. W. P. Graves, jr., left this city Tuesday night for North Carolina, where he will spend the winter.

The Misses Barrett will serve tea at the Golf Club House on Friday, Nov. 10th from 3 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. H. M. Parrish of Alexandria, who has been ill of typhoid fever for six weeks at the residence of Mr. T. A. Trice, has recovered, and returned home today.—[Charlottesville Progress.

Will Probated.

The will of the late Mrs. Lizzie G. Chewning, who died recently in Lynchburg, was probated in the Corporation Court today and Mr. C. P. Mahood qualified as executor. The deceased left her estate to her children.

Returns Canvassed.

The judges of election met at the clerk's office of the Corporation Court today and canvassed the votes cast at Tuesday's election. They were as published in yesterday's Gazette.

Fraternal Visit.

Perseverance Tent, No. 1098, I. O. R., paid a fraternal visit to Onward Tent, No. 1020, of Washington, last night, and were royally entertained.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

William Williams, colored, died at his home, 409 Oronoco street, last night. The deceased had been employed by Mr. E. E. Lawler, commission merchant, he having had charge of one of the teams.

Bell 'Phone No. 224 has been placed in the office of Mr. John D. Normoyle, real estate and insurance agent.

Virginia Conference Meets.

The one hundred and twenty-third session of the Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South began in Danville yesterday. Bishop Charles B. Galloway, of Mississippi, presided

Dr. Paul Whitehead was again elected secretary and George F. Green appointed as his assistant. The conference appointed committees on publication, conference records and church extension. Several records and communications were received.

A number of superannuated preachers passed the character examination. Two of these were recommended to re-enter the active work.

Rev. Dr. P. H. Whisner, of Nashville, Tenn., secretary of the board of church extension, made an address relative to the work of the board. Bishop Galloway followed in an appeal for funds to build a church in Japan. This was followed by the reports of some of the presiding elders.

After introducing representatives of the Bible Society the conference adjourned until today.

Mayor Naturalized.

In order that Rev. F. Leslie Robinson the newly appointed mayor of Middletown, Frederick county, could take the oath of office, it became necessary for Judge T. W. Harrison to hold a special term of the Circuit Court. Rev. Mr. Robinson yesterday qualified and renounced his allegiance "to all foreign potentates, sovereigns and nations," with particular reference to Edward VII., King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. Mr. Robinson then swore allegiance to the United States of America, promising to uphold and protect the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of Virginia. Mr. Robinson was appointed Mayor of Middletown by Judge Harrison. Middletown had been without a mayor for six years. The new chief executive of Middletown is a native of England, and had to become naturalized before he could take office.

Mutiny of Artillerymen.

London, Nov. 9.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company at Paris wires that a report is current there to the effect that a serious mutiny broke out among the marine artillerymen at Kronstadt. Several officers are believed to have been killed by the mutineers. After overpowering the officers many of the mutineers landed and sacked shops and public buildings, plundering them and sacked wine and spirits depots. The troops were called out and a fierce conflict ensued, in which there were many casualties. The mutineers were well armed. They had secured several machine guns and offered a determined resistance to the troops. The bloody fighting lasted all night, during which many houses were set on fire. The great buildings occupied by the Navy Club were pillaged. Panic prevails among the residents.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 9.—Trading reflected the turning of a large number of important interests from the bull side, and there were indications of liquidations in many of the leading issues all through the first hour. The dominating factor was the tension in the money market. Later the market rallied somewhat on rumors in circulation on the floor of the exchange to the effect that Secretary Shaw may deposit $30,000,000 additional government funds in local national banks for the purpose of relieving the money tension.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that they declared were entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Rothschild Funeral.

The Baron Arthur was a weakling; he was unregarded in his lifetime; the newspapers said he died by his own hand; but his funeral served to illustrate the family magnificence and social power. All traffic was stopped in the main thoroughfares of Paris through which the procession passed. For hours the heart of the city ceased to beat. Business ceased. Trams and 'buses were arrested. Hour after hour the long funeral crept through the boulevards while Paris looked on in wonder. The dead baron went with medieval pomp, though he was but a nephew of the house. Came first three coaches with the rabbis. Then the hearse, with great plumes, drawn by eight horses in sable cloths. Then the servants; butlers in white silk stockings; ushers in gilt chains and livery; valets, coachmen, footmen, stable lads; buglers, masters of hounds and horses in pink; guards and beaters of the preserves, and, conspicuous, the huntsmen leading in leash the baron's favorite hounds and the hounds leaped in leash and bayed; followed, too, his farmers and the peasants of his fields; and with all went the family, and, in a mile of carriages, the aristocracy of France paid homage; with such pomp the baron was taken to his grave; and the earth was laid upon him and he slept. Such anecdotes are really documents of the social life of the epoch.

Korean Emperor Angry.

Advices from Korea by the steamer Empress of China, which has arrived at Victoria, B. C., tell of the threat of the Korean Emperor to commit suicide by swallowing opium because of his anger at Great Britain's attitude towards Korea. The Emperor addressed a letter through the Korean foreign minister to the British minister at Seoul complaining of the absence of any reference to the independence of Korea in the Anglo-Japanese treaty. The Korean Emperor said he would not sanction any agreement which would establish a Japanese protectorate over Korea, and later he informed one of the Korean princesses he would kill himself by swallowing opium rather than bear the threatening loss of Korean prestige.

Daughters of Confederacy.

Miss Ruth Jennings, of Lynchburg, presided over the convention of the Virginia Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, at its first session in Richmond yesterday in Lee Camp Hall. Mayor McCarthy made an address of welcome, to which Miss Jennings responded. This was followed by prayer by Rev. J. William Jones. Mrs. Alexander, of Alexandria, read an appropriate poem, following which Mrs. Nealy read the list of names on the "roll call of the dead." The delegates had luncheon served at Murphy's Hotel and met again in the afternoon.

Cannot Evade Suit.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 9.—In the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, here, today, it was decided that Edward L. Harper, late vice president of the Fidelity National Bank, of Cincinnati, who robbed the institution of $2,500,000, could not evade suits in the civil courts by a discharge of bankruptcy. The case came up on appeal from the district court at Abingdon, and the single question involved was whether a discharge in bankruptcy would operate as a release of the debts due from Harper and growing out of his embezzlement. The former banker sought to enjoin the receivers of the institution who are now on his trail. He was unsuccessful in the lower court and fared equally as badly at the hands of the appellate judges.

Shipowners Alarmed.

London, Nov. 9.—Shipowners here are greatly alarmed over the situation in southern Russia, where the rioting has been in progress for two weeks. The entire winter trade of the Black Sea region has been disorganized as the result of the troubles there, especially at Odessa. Millions of bushels of grain lie rotting at points inland with absolutely no opportunity for getting it down to the sea. As a consequence of the poor outlook in that section many shipowners are preparing to send their vessels, which usually are employed in the Mediterranean and Black Sea trade, to America to take advantage of the heavy grain harvest in that country.

Use Your Own Judgment.

Lion Coffee is a package coffee that reaches the homes of the people just as it left the factory where it is roasted and packed.

The beans are picked and carefully selected at the plantation, then shipped direct to the factories to be prepared for home use.

The most scrupulous care is taken with every process, the utmost cleanliness enforced in every operation. Men and machinery employed in making Lion Coffee ready for the market are chosen on account of their excellence and fitness for the work.

Some of the results of this scrupulous treatment of Lion Coffee are a delicious flavor, perfect purity and a uniform strength and quality.

Lion Coffee is pure, fresh and clean. Loose coffee—there isn't any thing at all certain about it except that some housewives will not buy it.

All grocers know the above to be true.

Plans Abandoned.

Manchester, Eng., Nov. 9.—The Guardian is authority for saying that the scheme to employ British capital in rebuilding the Russian navy has been abandoned, and that the plan for Americans to undertake the same work has also been abandoned. The reason given for the abandonment of the project is that it has been found that the establishment of shipyards and shops in Russia would not pay, and there is not much chance of profit in the development of a State-assisted merchant shipping project

A large attendance is expected at the prayer service in the Children's Home, corner Duke and Royal streets, tonight.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

1 bottle holds 2½ as much as the 50 cent size.

Frightful Railroad Accident.

In the head-on collision on the Delaware, Lackawana and Western Railroad at Hunlocks Creek, 10 miles south of Wilkesbarre, Pa., yesterday afternoon, five trainmen were killed, one fatally and one seriously injured, and eight passengers slightly injured. The accident was horrible in every particular. The wreck was evidently due to a disobedience of orders. A fast freight, southbound, instead of waiting on the siding at West Nanticoke for the northbound express to pass, dashed down the single track which runs between the foot of the mountains and the river, and at a sharp curve the two trains came in sight so suddenly that the engineers and firemen did not have time to jump. The passenger train was running about 50 miles an hour, the freight about 25 and the collision was so terrific that the heavy freight engine threw the lighter passenger engine in a somersault backward over its own tender. It fell on the express car and the boiler exploded, destroying both engines, wrecking the express and the baggage cars and destroying the telephone and telegraph wires which were near the tracks. At the same time several freight cars piled upon and around the wrecked engine. It was in this mass of wreckage that, either by the explosion or by the force of the collision, all the trainmen who were killed met their death. Back of the express and the baggage cars of the passenger train were a smoker and two day coaches, and although these were well filled the express and baggage coaches were so effective as buffers that the passengers suffered no greater injuries than a few cuts and bruises from being thrown forward on their seats. The passengers and the injured trainmen got the dead and injured out of the wreck before their bodies were reached by the flames, and they were aided by farmers living near until a relief train with physicians arrived.

Bridegroom Under Arrest.

J. H. Wilson, the bridegroom of a week, appeared in the Police Court in Richmond, yesterday morning, to answer to the charges of forgery and grand larceny preferred by the Chief of Police of Roanoke, on whose request Wilson was arrested. A few days ago Mr. Wilson visited Miss Isabella L. Steinberg, who occupied a position as saleswoman in a dry goods store, whereupon Miss Steinberg informed her associates that she was going out to luncheon. While out they sought a minister and were married. The young bride, who is greatly distressed and mortified by the arrest of her husband, is the daughter of Mr. Samuel Steinberg, of Richmond. She did not visit her husband after his arrest. Wilson, who formerly traveled for the Peninsular Paint Company, of Detroit, indignantly denies the charges. He was taken to Roanoke last night.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and save his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of Indigestion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind

A Liquid Cold Cure.

A Cough Syrup which drives a cold out of the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels is offered in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Clears the throat, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes. The mother's friend and the children's favorite. Best for Croup, Whooping-Cough, etc. A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels and works all cold out of the system. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
